

ENVIRONMENT STUDIO
SCHOOL OF ART
THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

WET RIVER DRY LAKE

AN EXHIBITION OF VISUAL ART
AND CONTEMPORARY MUSIC

RACHEL PEACHEY & PAUL MOSIG / PROCESS DETAIL
2005. DIGITAL PRINTS.

FIELD STUDIES 2005

WENTWORTH - LAKE MUNGO - LAKE VICTORIA - NSW

More than 40 artists and writers present work inspired by field research in Wentworth, Lake Mungo and Lake Victoria in April / July 2005. Media include silver, ceramics, drawing, painting, textiles, photography, multimedia, glass, printmaking, sculpture, installation and contemporary music.

VENUES

OPEN WEDNESDAY 12 - SUNDAY 16 OCTOBER 2005. OPEN DAILY 10am - 4pm SOME VENUES CLOSE LATER
PSRUBY + DARLING STREET MEMORIAL ROOM - PSRUBY OFFICE - RED CAFE. OTHER VENUES SEE MAP

Opening: 6pm, PS Ruby Wentworth Wharf Wednesday 12th October

Ian Bettinson, Dorothy Noble, Charles Cooper, Micky Allan, Jenny Lawrence, Emily Jacket, Timo Nest, Sue Langwill, Julia Schumacher, Louisa Oats, Antonia Aitken, Ian Robertson, Meg Buchanan, Tor Fromyhr, Wendy Teakel, Margit Brümmer, Dick Aitken, David McRoberts, Gabrielle Heywood, Marzena Wasikowska, Leanne Dempsey, Benjamin Ashe, Simon Scheuerle, Paul Hay, Sarah Firth, Luisa Martinez, Justin Clune, Julie Schneider, Paula Sammut, Rob Little, Brendan Taylor, Nazanin Moradi, Ximena Briceno, Eileen Procter, Leonie Andrews, John Reid, Paul Mosig, Rachel Peachey, Leanne Bear, Emma Kelly, Shannon Reid, Dan Stewart-Moore, Chris Stone, joined by several local artists

The Murray-Darling Basin Commission has generously supported the Wentworth Field Studies program and the exhibition Wet River Dry Lake. Contributions to field research from the Wentworth and Lake Mungo regional communities, the PS Ruby Management Committee and NSW National Parks and Wildlife Service are gratefully acknowledged.

